Football

The Bulldogs enjoyed a successful season in 1942. They won all but one of their pre-season games and had a .500 average in the city series.

After losing a hard fought game to a very powerful Odessa team, 12-0, they defeated Waxahachie, 26-6; Kilgore, 26-0; and Ennis, 26-0. North Dallas was later awarded the victory over Odessa when that team was disqualified.

In the city series, the Bulldogs took revenge on Crozier Tech by defeating them with a 26-6 count. Although playing with all they had until the last siren, they went down in defeat to Sunset — State finalists — 21-0. The real heart-break came in the Adamson game when the men in Orange completely outclassed and outplayed the Leopards only to come out on the short end of the score. The annual grudge game between Woodrow Wilson and North Dallas resulted in a 6-7 tie, with both teams ever threatening the other's score.

In the last game of the season, the Bulldogs stomped all over Forest to the tune of 32-0.

The Bulldogs went through the whole season playing a fine game of hustling ball. Standouts during the whole season were the three co-captains and All-City, Carol Selby, Billy Williams, and Jack Bills. Jack Bills was named "Most Valuable Player" by his teammates. Although only four lettermen are returning, North Dallas is expected to put a strong team in the field in '43.

Track

The North Dallas thinly clad gathered a total of nineteen points in the city meet to take fifth place.

Berry Boyd, Charles Cade, and John Rowland paced the team with five points apiece, followed by Glen Hall with two; Raymond Potts, one, and the mile relay team, one.

It was Coach B. C. Hayes' first season as track coach and prospects are brighter than usual for a better next year's squad.

Basketball

Coach O. A. Cruce and his North Dallas Cagers repeated last year's performance by closing the season in a tie for fourth place. Their record was four wins against six defeats.

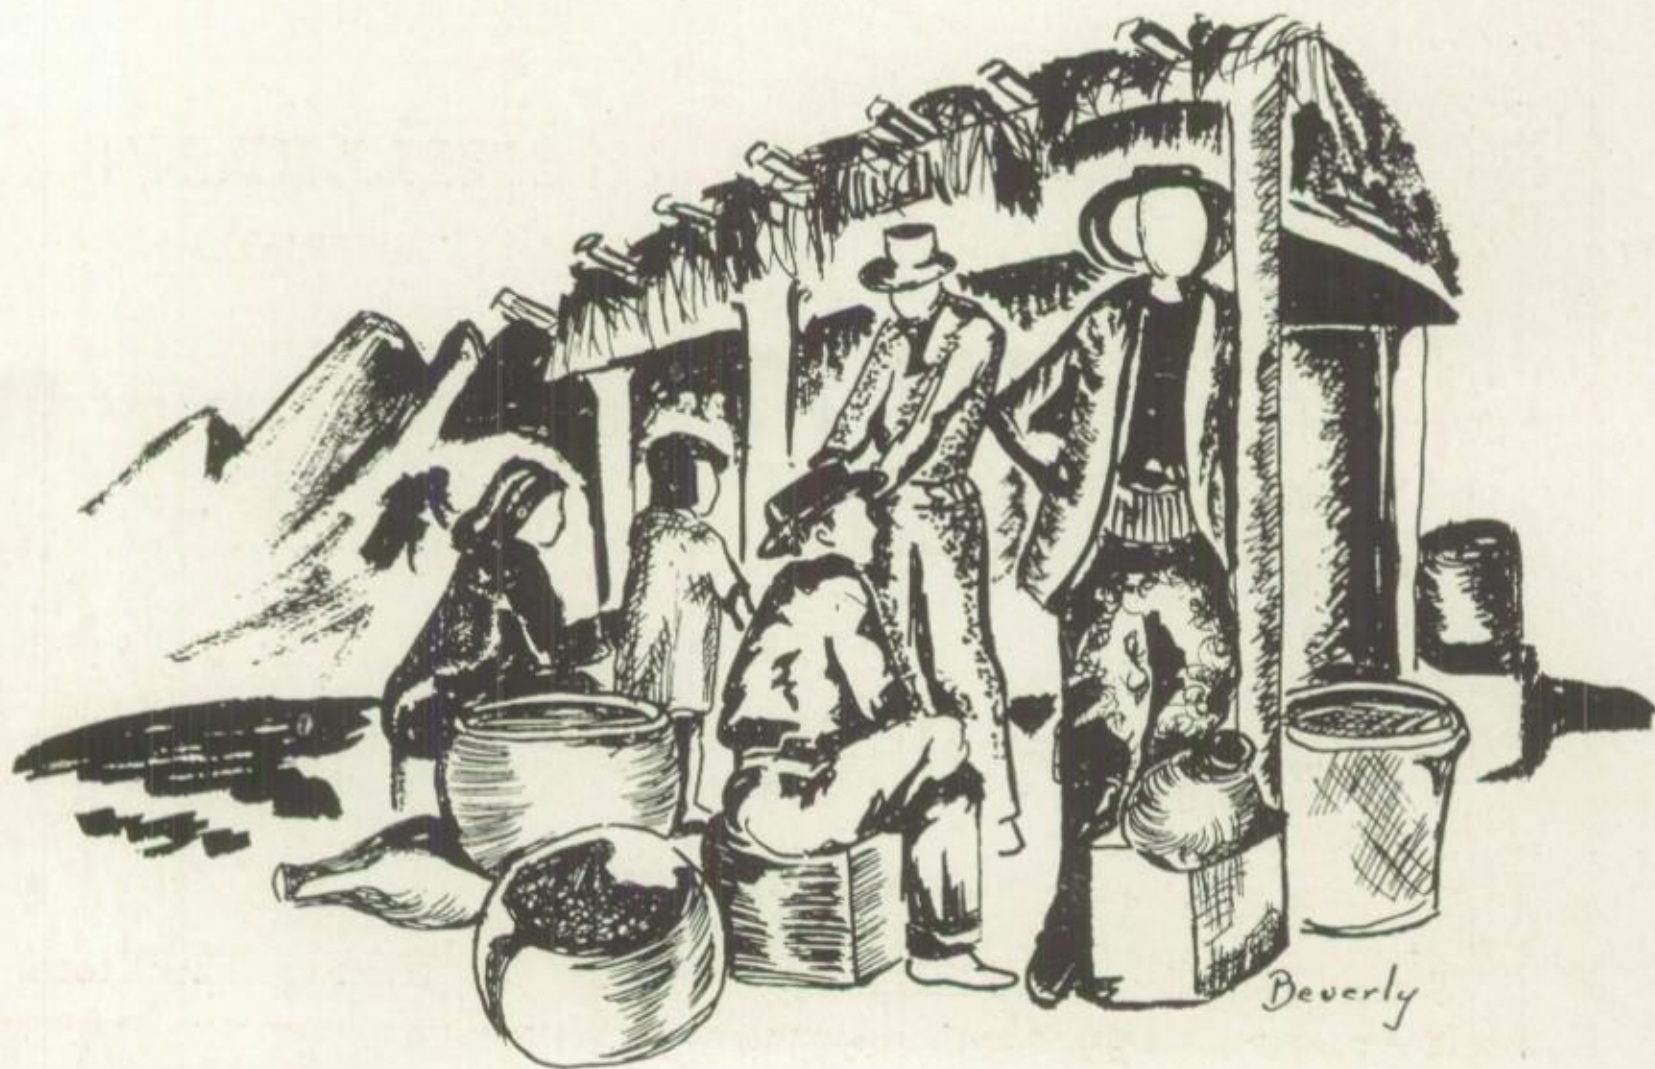

The Bulldogs, led by John Rowland, displayed magnificence's opener. The year when they bounced favored Sunset 28-22 in the season's first fight and determination in scoring the biggest upset of the year. Lettermen are John Rowland, Berry Boyd, Billy Williams, Larry Taylor, Tom Murnane, Henry Dickerson, and Frank Haughton. The latter two promise to bolster next year's team.

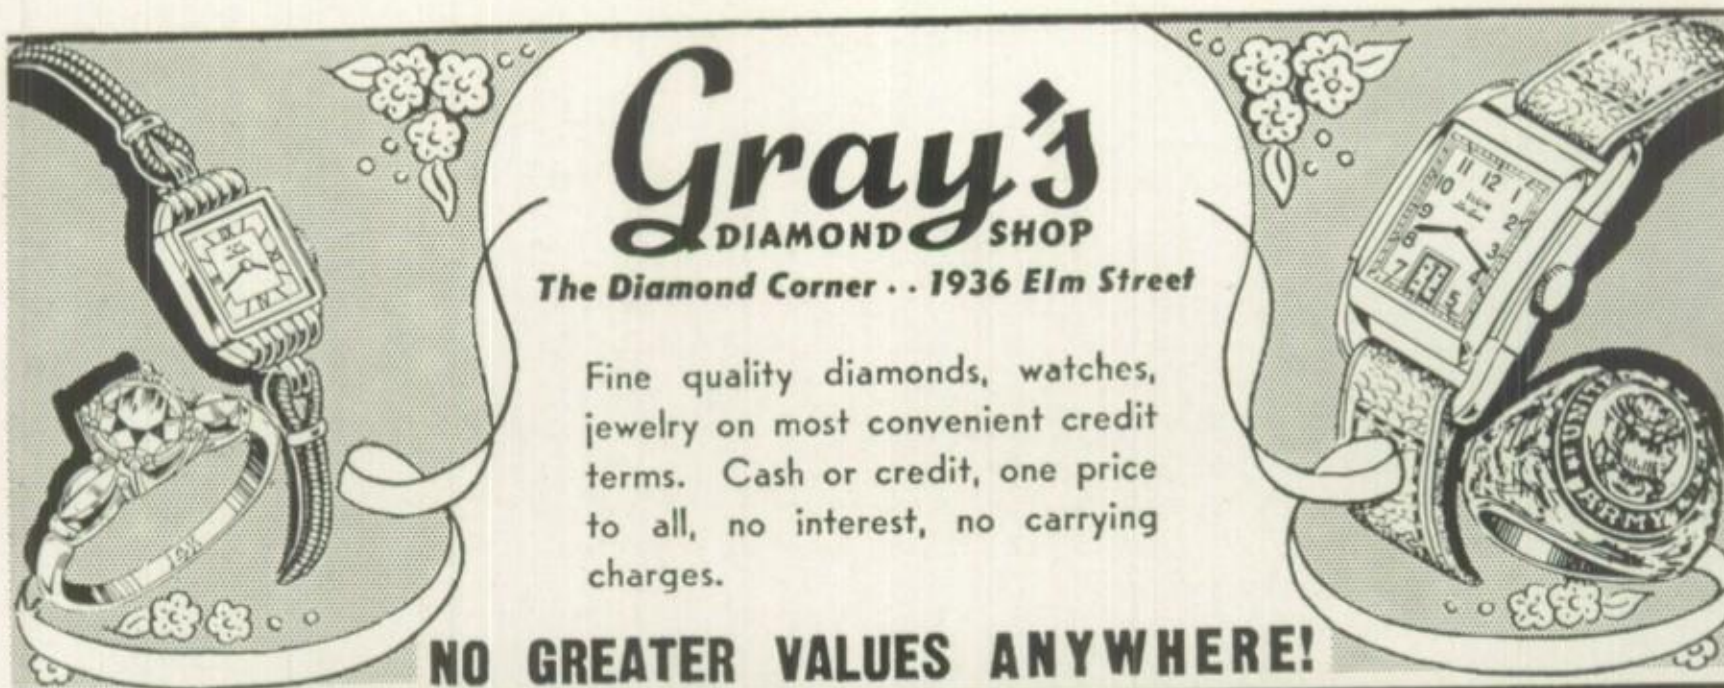

Baseball

The Bulldogs went into the 1943 baseball season with better prospects than they have had for several years. There were six returning lettermen: Jack Webb, Gene Willett, Joe Rutland, Vincent Alot, Gordon Miller, and Eddie Dusek.

A preacher saw a group of little boys sitting in a circle with a dog in the middle. He asked them what they were doing to the dog. One little fellow spoke up and said, "We ain't doin' nuthin' to the dog; we're just telling lies and the one that tells the biggest one gets the dog." The preacher told them that he was much shocked, that when he was a little boy he would never have even thought of telling a lie. The little boy said, "Give him the dog!"
